RE: Participation in Access Justice Clinics

On behalf of the Western Canada Society to Access Justice I am writing to extend our sincere and ongoing thanks for your participation in our clinics. I note from our records that you have been a faithful contributor of your time on several occasions since 2004 and for that we are most grateful.

It is in the finest tradition of the bar that lawyers donate their time for pro bono service. In 2008, over 320 lawyers donated their time to one or more of our clinics during the year. In short, our clinics continue to thrive because lawyers are willing to donate their time.

I should tell you that it is often my privilege to speak to the media and others about the contributions of our lawyers. I enclose for your reference a copy of the Ian Mulgrew article in the Vancouver Sun entitled "It's no joke: Lawyers have hearts". You do indeed have a heart!

Best regards,

Allan A. Parker
